Resolution authorizing an extension of the current contract with Deinhart Computer Consulting Inc. (DCC), to provide professional computer consulting services for RACM.

Whereas, a previous assessment of computer needs for the department recommended augmenting the Information Technology staff with out-sourced assistance in network administration and on-going documentation of processes; and

Whereas, on February 28, 2008, RACM approved a resolution authorizing a contract with DCC for three years for computer consulting services; and

Whereas, DCC has performed all required services in a professional manner and met all the requirements outlined in its contract to date including developing the current computer network and system used by both RACM and HACM; development of a more secure computer network through developments such as a server logging and review process and the introduction of safer computing practices; and has contributed to a more efficient computer network through innovations such as virtual hardware; and

Whereas, DCC has brought the requisite application of current knowledge and best practice to the maintenance and administration of the computer network environment and therefore possesses the expertise and specific knowledge necessary to provide the network administration, security recommendations, and staff training for RACM ; and

Whereas, DCC assisted in evaluating the current computer network in anticipation of separation into distinct RACM and HACM computer networks and made recommendations for an effective and efficient separation of same; and

Whereas, DCC was the only vendor to respond to the Housing Authority of the City of Milwaukee's informal bid for the same above referenced services and is currently contracted to the Housing Authority of the City of Milwaukee for the same above referenced services; and

Whereas, staff recommends extending the current contract with DCC for one year with an option to renew the contract for an additional one-year term by mutual consent of both parties; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Milwaukee, that the proper officials of the Redevelopment Authority are authorized to extend the contract with DCC for a term of one year, with an option to renew the contract for one additional year in an amount not to exceed $45,000.00 per year.
