Governor Doyle,

The declaration by FEMA of an emergency in Milwaukee County is good news for the municipalities located in the County. However, there is a great deal of need for resources for the people whose homes were affected by the water run-off.

I would urge you to appeal FEMA's decision not to help individual homeowners. I spent a number of days with FEMA surveying the damage to people's homes. I saw firsthand how much our families were impacted by the water run-off.

I hope we can work together to get the individuals whose homes were affected the resources they need to help in recovery efforts.

Sincerely,
