WALKER SUPPORTS 2010 JOB FAIR FOR VETERANS IN MILWAUKEE

MILWAUKEE – County Executive Scott Walker supports the 2010 Job Fair for Veterans being held from 11 am to 4 pm Saturday, August 28, 2010 at the Milwaukee Theatre, Plankinton Hall, 500 West Kilbourn Avenue. The event is sponsored by The American Legion and the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development.

“Getting the word out to veterans about this job fair can help them succeed in a difficult job market,” Walker said. “And, there’s always an appeal for more employers to join in the effort to help our veterans.”

Participating employers and agencies include: Bank of America, the General Services Administration, General Electric, Veterans Administration, Patrick Cudahy, Department of Homeland Security, Farmers Insurance, FEMA, the Medical College of Wisconsin, Transportation Security Administration, Customs and Border Protection, Kleen Test Products, International Code Council and the U.S. Secret Service. The job fair is free and open to all veterans and potential employers.

For more information, job applicants should call Ken Grant, Program Director for the Office of Veterans Employment Services at the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development, at (608) 267-7277.

Employers should contact Greg Williams, Milwaukee Job Center, at (414) 389-6293.
