SUPERVISOR CESARZ STATEMENT ON THE PASSING OF JIM RYAN

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Paul M. Cesarz released the following statement in response to the passing of Hales Corners Village President Jim Ryan:

“My condolences go out to the family of Jim Ryan during this extremely difficult time. It was my sincere pleasure to work with Jim on both Municipal and County matters. Jim was also a man of strong faith and was devoted to his church, St. Mary’s Catholic Faith Community in Hales Corners, where he set the standard for volunteer service and leadership for the parish.

Just two weeks ago, Jim attended the ceremony naming the Hales Corners Village Hall in his honor. He remarked that nothing is more important than people willing to work together, regardless of differing viewpoints and beliefs. This was indeed Jim’s philosophy, demonstrated through a lifetime of public service.

In addition to being a model statesman, he was a family man dedicated to his wife, Lisa, and their children and grandchildren. My heart goes out to them as we celebrate the life of this great man. I’m keeping all of them in my thoughts and prayers.”
