Dear Friends,

We are back! I know you have not heard from me visa-visa the E-news but during the election time of December 2007 through April 2008, I could not email mass communications. So I am so happy to be back utilizing our information technology systems to communicate the “good news” of Milwaukee County.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who participated in the political system this past year. I appreciate you taking your power to the ballot box and exercising your right as a citizen. Thank you for allowing me to serve in the capacity of your Milwaukee County Supervisor of the 10th District. I promise to continue to serve with dignity, honor, innovation and integrity.

Supervisor Coggs and her daughters at the swearing in.

I am blessed to have the opportunity to serve as the first African-American female Chair of the County Board's Finance and Audit Committee.

"I'm pleased Chairman Holloway has selected me to lead this influential County Board Committee. I'm excited to serve as Chair and look forward to making important, and sometimes difficult, decisions on behalf of the 10th District and all the residents of Milwaukee County.

"I'm honored and humbled to fill the shoes of former Committee Chairman Richard D. Nyklewicz, Jr., who chose to not seek another term after serving 33 years on the County Board. I hope to carry on his efforts to provide the highest quality services at the most effective cost for County taxpayers. In 2007, the Committee's efforts to reduce employee health care costs, along with favorable investment earnings, led to a $7 million surplus.

"Later this year, the Finance and Audit Committee will begin its work on the 2009 County Budget. We will devise creative ways to overcome funding challenges for mass transit, parks, and crucial safety net services for Milwaukee County residents who need the help most. We have a diverse Committee that will carefully look at every issue and department to make sure we are providing the best service and value to our residents."

I was elected in 1988, to represent the 10th Supervisory District, and am the longest serving member on the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors.
