

Ray Weitz, PHR, BS, MPA, PHD

Ray Weitz is the Health Personnel Officer for the City of Milwaukee Health Department. He is responsible for staffing and recruitment, training and development, labor management relations and contract administration, job analysis and documentation, payroll and leave administration policies, worker's compensation and safety, performance evaluations, grievance administration, training and development and disciplinary actions.

Mr. Weitz, who joined MHD in 2008, has 14 years of human resource management experience and 19 years of labor management relations experience. He previously served as a human resource professional with a myriad of state agencies, including the Department of Health and Family Services, the University of Wisconsin System, and the Department of Corrections.

Mr. Weitz received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Sociology and his Masters of Public Administration from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. He holds a Ph.D. in Business Administration with a specialization in Human Resource Management from North Central University. Mr. Weitz also holds the certification of Professional Human Resource (PHR) through the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM).