

You are Cordially Invited to A Recognition Event Honoring Moms & Dads

Plain Talk Milwaukee Initiative

Family Dinner Night for Parents and Teens

Wednesday, May 14, 2008

6:00 PM until 8:00 PM

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Community Center
1531 W. Vliet St., Milwaukee, WI 53208

Plain Talk Milwaukee Initiative and New Concept Self Development Center Father's Resource Center will observe One Year of Plain Talk Parties to Train 600 "Askable Adults." The City of Milwaukee Health Department will recognize the alumni of the Askable Adults Parties so far.

Dinner will be prepared by local celebrity cook, Albert Holmes. Mr. Holmes will serve up Fried Turkey and Dressing (not stuffing!) while the Plain Team serves a fun-filled program.

This event is free to the public. The discussion and dinner is for everyone. (Teens and children must come with an adult.)

Childcare will be provided. Call 286-8478 to arrange for child care for children under 11. Please RSVP for child care so we can order your younger child(ren) a special meal.

The Plain Talk Milwaukee Initiative education offers resources and referrals for teens, parents of teens, and concerned adults on how to communicate about sex and teen pregnancy to enable young people to make positive choices and stay healthy. For more information contact the Plain Talk Milwaukee Initiative, Denise A. Crumble, contact person at 414-286-8478 or cell: 414-708-4537.
