Who needs a Public Entertainment Premises License?

License is required for those conducting or operating public entertainment.

Public Entertainment means any entertainment of any nature or description to which the public generally may gain admission, either with or without the payment of a fee. Any entertainment operated commercially for gain by membership, season ticket, invitation or other system open or offered to the public generally shall be deemed to constitute a public entertainment. This definition includes dances, shows, and exhibitions provided for a fee including plays, skits, musical revues, children's theater, dance productions, musical concerts, opera and production or provision of signs or sounds or visual or auditory sensations which are designed to or may divert, entertain or otherwise appeal to members of the public who are admitted to the place of entertainment, which is produced by means, including radio, phonograph, jukebox, television, video reproduction, tape recorder, piano, orchestra or band or any other musical instrument, slide or movie projector, spotlights, or interruptible or flashing light devices and decoration. This term includes a carnival, festival, establishment offering hookah service, motion picture house or theater, and when offered to the public for a fee, bowling, billiard table, or amusement machines as defined in s. 107-13.

Public Entertainment Premises means a premise or location, whether publicly or privately owned, that is open to access by the public as a matter of right or is made available for use by a member of the public, and that is used for entertainment, assembly, or recreational purpose. This includes a space rented or reserved for a private or public event such as a performance, cultural gathering, celebration, or community function.

Hookah Service

Hookah Service means the rental or complimentary use of a hookah provided by an establishment. A hookah is any recreational water pipe used to inhale heated or vaporized substances, including, but not limited to, non-tobacco shisha.
